PREFACE

The Kerala Government has embarked on a substantial initiative to bolster higher education by enacting reforms in line with the proposals of Professor Syam B Menon Commission. One of these reforms involves the adoption of the Four-Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUGP) in Sanskrit, a language renowned for its profound cultural and historical significance. Sanskrit, celebrated for its opulent literary tradition and profound philosophical underpinnings, acts as a conduit to India's ancient wisdom and knowledge reservoirs.

India is a land which ensures freedom of thinking and freedom of expression to people since ancient period. As a result of independent thinking and logic, many diverse philosophical systems emerged in India. In India the philosophical speculations are known as Darsanas. Indian philosophical systems are generally divided into two; Orthodox philosophical systems (Astikadarsanas) and Heterodox philosophical systems (Nastikadarsanas). Philosophical systems are directly or indirectly related to daily life of people. They have great influence in shaping people's thoughts and actions. Among Indian philosophical systems, the Vedanta philosophy has an impenetrable connection with the individuals. The contribution of Vedanta philosophy is the main reason for India's greatest position among the nations of the world.

BA Sanskrit Special Vedanta is one among the Bachelor of Arts Degree Programmes in Sanskrit Special offered by the University of Kerala. Advaitavedantadarsana which is known by the name of Sri Sankaracharya, the greatest philosopher of world, is famous among the Vedantadarsanas. In BA Sanskrit Special Vedanta programme the key subject is Advaitavedantadarsana. Study of other philosophical systems is also incorporated with the key subject. The main objective of the program is to enable the learner to live with intellect, morality and humanity for the betterment of the society, by the power of knowledge gained from Vedas and philosophical systems. Origin, development, philosophers, literature and theories come under the scope of the syllabus. The role of philosophy and its application in contemporary society is also becomes the matter of study. Also the role of philosophy for personal development, community development and national development is part of the syllabus. The syllabus also includes topics those lead to employment. In this way, the programme aims at preserving intellectually and morally sound society.

The formulation of the syllabus for the B.A. Honours in Sanskrit Special Vedanta is a collaborative endeavor, drawing upon the expertise of individuals like Dr. B Prasannakumary, an External Expert in Sanskrit Grammar, and Dr. K.K Sundaresan, a Subject Expert in Sanskrit Vedanta, whose guidance and insight have proven invaluable. The combined contributions of the faculty members in Sanskrit Vedanta and other stakeholders underscore a dedicated commitment to furnishing students with a well-rounded education in Sanskrit language and Philosophy. This endeavour not only champions linguistic diversity but also empowers students with skills pertinent to today's interconnected global landscape.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all those who were a part of this syllabus of FYUGP in Sanskrit Special Vedanta under University of Kerala especially the team members of Board of Studies for their vigorous support. I also grateful to all the faculty members who were participated in the syllabus workshop on FYUGP organized by University of Kerala.

INTRODUCTION

- Subheadings : Font size- 14, Align left, Bold. Do not underline. May be numbered as 1.1, 1.2, 2, 2.1, etc.
- Quotes : in MLA style (MLA Handbook, Eighth Edition)
- Abbreviations : refer MLA Handbook, Eighth Edition
- Scheme of transliteration: As adopted by A.L.Basham in the book The Wonder that was India.
- All Sanskrit and other foreign words in the report prepared in English should be italicized.

C. Documentation of sources:

- In-text citations: The report should adopt MLA style in-text citations followed by a 'works cited' list at the end of the document. A typical in-text citation is composed of the element that comes first in the entry in the works-cited list (usually the author's name) and a page number. When documenting a scripture, title or shortened titles are italicized followed by its division (Rgveda, I.1.1). For e.g.-

Reading is just half of literacy. The other half is writing (Baron 194). One might even suggest that reading is never complete without writing.

- Works cited: This list titled 'Works cited' identifies the sources you borrow from. This should be formatted according to the MLA style, arranged in alphabetical order, using hanging indentation. For e. g.-

Baron, Navomi S. "Redefining Reading: The Impact of Digital Communication Media." PMLA, vol.128, no.1, Jan.2013, pp.193-200.

Dorris, Michael and Louse Erdrich. The Crown of Columbus. Harper Collins Publishers, 1999.

Jacob, Alan. The Pleasure of Reading in an Age of Distraction. Oxford UP, 2011.

- Bibliographic Notes: Bibliographic notes may be used if necessary. Notes are used for evaluative comments on sources and General Reading. The reader can acquire additional information through these notes. The flow of the original narration can be kept unaffected by this technique. These are usually titled as 'Notes' preferably at the end of the document. For e.g.-

Many observers conclude that healthcare in the United States is unadequate.¹
